Honorable Charles Griffin
Speaker of the House of Representatives
State House
Concord, New Hampshire

Dear Mr. Griffin:

You have inquired whether the proposed recodification of the laws, Revised Statutes Annotated, take precedence over the present session laws.

You are respectfully advised that it is my opinion that the recodification does not take precedence over present session laws and that it so provides by express terms. RSA, c. 624, s. 17.

However, if it is your feeling, or the feeling of the Rules Committee, that this legal situation concerning precedence of the present session laws is not set forth with sufficiently desirable common certainty in the aforementioned section, additional legislation so stating specifically and clearly would be relatively simple to prepare, by a new bill, for your use immediately.

Respectfully,

Louis C. Wyman
Attorney General
